Beautiful!

Ono is a port town which continues to produce soy sauce since the Edo era. The area contains many tradesman's house and the soy sauce brewery is selected as a protected old town area and cultural scenery area in Kanazawa. In May 2019, it was registered as a Japan heritage from the Agency for Cultural Affairs. In addition, galleries and cafés fill the old tradesman's houses and with the soy sauce brewery is a breath of fresh air for Ono without breaking its scenery.
